

Why Choose Law?

Law offers you a comprehensive introduction to the structure and workings of the legal system in England and Wales. This includes studying the sources of law, the role of law in shaping and adapting to our society and its values and the structure and processes of the legal profession. The Law of Torts will involve you in exploring remedies available to those who have suffered harm due to the negligent actions of others. By studying Criminal Law you will also explore offences against property or the person, pleas of insanity or self-defence and consider concepts such as attempted crime and conspiracies to commit a crime.

Choose Law as an option and you will also have the chance to develop important skills in researching, problem-solving, effective written and verbal communication, analytical and critical thinking and independent working.

At Alun School,
our experienced teaching team provide expert guidance and tuition in 5 weekly lessons.

Law

Assessment Information

A Level Units

AS Unit 1 - The Nature of Law and the Welsh and English Legal Systems - 1 hour and 45 minutes written examination that makes up 25% of qualification.

AS Unit 2 - The Law of Tort - 1 hour and 15 minutes written examination that makes up 15% of qualification.

A2 Unit 3 - The Practice of Substantive Law: Criminal Law and Human Rights - 2 hours written examination that makes up 30% of qualification.

A2 Unit 4 - Substantive Law Perspectives: Criminal Law and Human Rights - 2 hours written examination that makes up 30% of qualification.

Entry Requirements

You should have achieved a Grade C or above in GCSE English Language.

Progression Routes

The transferable skills and knowledge you will gain through the study of Law at Alun School will be invaluable in enabling you to access a wide range of courses at university.

Law will give you an excellent grounding for multiple career opportunities including:

Every year, this course inspires many students to progress on to well-respected institutions to study a range of subjects including Law, History, Criminology, Politics and Psychology.

“Studying A Level Law at Alun School presented a fantastic opportunity to engage with a contemporary course which offered numerous transferable skills. The course enables you to develop skills such as independent learning, working within a group and case evaluation, all of which will prove highly valuable to anyone wishing to pursue further studies in Law, Social Sciences or History.”

- former student

