

Why Choose the Criminology WJEC Level 3 Diploma ?

The Criminology WJEC Level 3 Diploma is a qualification with elements of psychology, law and sociology. It has been designed to offer exciting and interesting experiences that focus on applied learning, i.e. through the acquisition of knowledge and understanding in contexts linked to the criminal justice system.

Not all crimes are alike. What different types of crime take place in our society? How do we decide what behaviour is criminal? Why and how do we punish people? Criminology will answer these and many other questions.

Choose the WJEC Level 3 Diploma in Criminology as an option and you will be given the additional support of lunchtime and after-school tutorials and have access to high-quality revision material. You will also be given the opportunity to participate in trips and regularly attend Criminology Conferences in Bangor, Manchester and Wrexham Universities.

At Alun School,
our experienced teaching team provide expert guidance and tuition in 5 weekly lessons.

Criminology WJEC Level 3 Diploma

Assessment Information

Equivalent to 1 A level

WJEC Level 3 Diploma - Criminology.

Combination of 4 units over 2 years - Changing Awareness of Crime.
Criminological Theories.
Crime Scene to Courtroom.
Crime and Punishment.

Assessment - 2 internal controlled assessments and 2 external 1 hour and 30 minutes written exams.

Entry Requirements

You should have achieved 4 or more GCSEs at Grade C or above.

Progression Routes

The transferable skills and knowledge you will gain through the study of Criminology at Alun School will be invaluable for progression into careers in that sector.

Criminology will give you an excellent grounding for multiple career opportunities including:

This course is an ideal choice if you are not considering university application; if you are planning to go to university you should select, where possible, A Level courses.

Why choose the Criminology WJEC Level 3 Diploma?

You will learn from experienced teachers.

You will have access to excellent facilities.

It will challenge you to think and work independently.

You will be able to develop your skills and your ability to solve problems.

